The Death of Journalism as we knew it.

Episode 35: November 12, 2020, 3:00pm ET via Zoom.

Alex Traiman, Juda Engelmayer, and Josh Block join Edwin

In 2020, American Journalism — as we know it — finally died. It openly committed mediocrity. The networks and newspapers pushed specific candidates, ignored and self-censored important news while magnifying small details and fake accusations, consciously pandered in bogus polls, and hyped divisive politics. It was the Pravdaization of the media. Tens of millions Americans, Democrats and Republicans, have just signed the death certificate, voting against big media and their pollsters. Democracy cannot exist without a free and vibrant press functioning as the permeable membrane between the governed and governance. What's next. Seasoned media hands weigh in. JNS Jerusalem Bureau Chief Alex Traiman, political strategist Josh Block, top crisis manager Juda Engelmayer join Edwin.
