

Is Antisemitism Entrenched in the Democratic Party?

Open and virulent antisemitism and anti-Israel hatred in the Democratic Party, once diminished and kept below the Mason-Dixon line, is now entrenched in powerful senior posts across the country. The result is official legislative and administrative support for or inaction on BDS and a range of other anti-Israel hate messages coming from top ranks in the Congress, the National Security Council, the State Department, and even the White House. Don't be mistaken—it's not just the Squad anymore.

Stalwart Democrat Josh Block, Republican Jewish Coalition comms director Neil Strauss, and other leading voices join Edwin to name names and spotlight the realities.
