

A map of Europe with the words "War in Europe" written in large, bold, red, stylized letters across the top. The map shows various countries and cities, including Denmark, Germany, Poland, Lithuania, Latvia, Estonia, and Ukraine. The text "RUSSIA FEDERATION" is also visible.

War in Europe

Today, it's Ukraine. Who is next?

Last March, Vladimir Putin moved 90,000 troops to Ukraine's border. No one reacted. Last July, Putin declared he wanted to dismantle and absorb Ukraine. No one reacted. Last summer, Putin declared the goal of reconstituting the territory of the old Soviet Union, including parts of Poland and the Baltic States. No one reacted.

Now Russia has fully invaded Ukraine—as promised. Who is next? What is next? Polish Embassy Deputy Chief of Mission Adam Krzywośadzki and Hudson Institute foreign policy fellow Josh Block join Edwin.
