An aerial photograph of the United States Capitol building in Washington, DC, taken at dusk. The building is illuminated from within, and the surrounding grounds are covered in a layer of snow. The sky is a deep blue, and the overall scene is serene and wintry.

is on hiatus this week. We'll be back on January 11 with our first show of the new year—a look at the state of America's cities.

Edwin, Carol, and Team Black hope that everyone enjoyed their new year's observations and wish all of you a healthy, happy 2024.
